

COLOMA CONVENT GIRLS' SCHOOL

CURRICULUM POLICY

VOLUNTARY - AIDED

Date policy agreed: June 2015

Main ECM outcomes: all

Purpose

We believe that learning is an enjoyable, lifelong process through which everyone can achieve their potential and exceed their expectations. We will challenge and support our pupils to do their very best by providing an extensive range of learning experiences beyond the statutory requirement.

Who/What was Consulted?

The National Curriculum Handbook, DfE circulars and guidance from Ofqual informed the policy.

Relationship to Other Policies

The school policy on the curriculum embraces policies and procedures for Admissions, Assessment, Charging, Collective Worship, Drugs, Equality & Community Cohesion, Health and Safety, Appraisal and Capability, School Visits, SEN, Relationships & Sex Education, Staff Discipline, and Teaching and Learning.

Roles and Responsibilities of Headteacher, Other Staff and Governors

The headteacher will ensure that:

- all statutory elements of the curriculum, and those subjects which the school chooses to offer, have aims and objectives which reflect the aims of the school and indicate how the needs of individual pupils will be met. This will include how the subject will be taught and assessed, the use of language (reading, writing, speaking and listening) and the use of information and communications technology;
- the amount of time provided for teaching the curriculum is adequate and is reviewed by the Governors annually;
- where appropriate, the individual needs of some pupils are met by permanent or temporary disapplication from the National Curriculum;
- the procedures for assessment meet all legal requirements, and pupils and their parents/carers receive information to show how much progress the pupils are making, how they compare with school or national expectations, and what is required to help them improve;
- the Governing Body is fully involved in decision-making processes that relate to the breadth and balance of the curriculum;
- the Governing Body is advised on statutory targets in order to make informed decisions;

It is the responsibility of the Headteacher to ensure that reference is made to this policy in other associated policies and, where changes are made to this policy, all other school policies and procedures are checked/amended.

Other staff will ensure that the school curriculum is implemented in accordance with this policy.

The Governing Body will ensure that:

- it considers the advice of the headteacher when approving this curriculum policy and when setting statutory and non-statutory targets;
- progress towards annual statutory targets is monitored;
- parents and carers receive timely reports on the progress of their child against clearly defined expectations;
- it participates actively in decision-making about the breadth and balance of the curriculum;
- staff understand that political issues must be presented to pupils in a balanced way.

Arrangements for Monitoring and Evaluation

The Governing Body will be regularly informed by the Headteacher on:

- the standards reached in each subject or groups of subjects, by every year group, against national averages and similar schools;
- the standards achieved at the end of each key stage by ethnicity, compared with national and local benchmarks;
- the standards achieved by pupils with special educational needs and groups deemed to be vulnerable;
- the number of pupils for whom the curriculum was disapplied, the arrangements which were made, how pupils and parents were informed, how progress was monitored, the progress made by those pupils;
- the evidence of the impact of external intervention and support and national strategies on standards;
- the views of staff about the action required to improve standards;
- the nature of any parental complaints.
